

PRESENT

6th Annual

COMMUNITY GARDEN

SPRING RESOURCE FAIR

KEYNOTE

Ashley Atkinson, Director of Project Development and Urban Agriculture, The Greening of Detroit – Ashley works with The Greening of Detroit’s Garden Resource Program, which provides resources and support to home, school, and community gardens in the Detroit area.

WORKSHOPS

- Detroit’s Garden Clusters • Growing Styles and Approaches for Urban Farmers • Working with New Americans • Community Gardens in Greater Minnesota • Superabundant Small Gardens • Tool Lending Libraries • Parade of Community Gardens 101 • Sustainable Landscaping • Green Jobs • Building an Inclusive Community Garden • Placemaking: Designing for Community • Faith-based Community Gardens

PLUS MORE

- Complimentary light breakfast • Info Booths • Kid’s Activities • Lunch for Purchase, Courtesy of Marla’s Caribbean Cuisine • Music

For more information, contact Gardening Matters at 612/492-8964, www.gardeningmatters.org

SATURDAY MARCH 27TH 9AM-4:00PM

Sabathani Community Center
310 E 38th St
Minneapolis

$5 suggested donation

EVENT SPONSORS:
音川安 otogawa-anschel

design build
MINNESOTA'S VISION
A Better State of Health
Statewide Health Improvement Program SHIP

LISC
Twin Cities

Grassroots sponsors: Barbette, Bryant Lake Bowl, City of St. Paul, Homegrown Minneapolis, Land Stewardship Project, MetroBlooms, Midwest Organic and Hydroponic Gardening Supplies, MN Institute of Sustainable Agriculture, MN-NCR-SARE, MN State Horticultural Society, Mother Earth Gardens, Red Stag Supper Club, Seward Co-op Grocery and Deli, Terrace Horticultural Books, Valley Natural Foods